The Plague Commissioner
in Mysore.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that till the month of May 1899. I had three Assistant Commissioners. Messrs Knight, Seetharamaya and Krishna Iyer in addition to the Assistant Superintendent of Police to assist me in the administration of the District. Mr. Knight was entrusted in charge of the Plague Department and the other Assistant Commissioners attended to Revenue and Criminal and other miscellaneous works. After Mr. Knight retired from service I myself had to take charge of the Plague duties Connected with the District as no Assistant Commissioner was sent in place of the retired Officer. As I had multifarious works to attend to and as Bangalore had been re-cently declared an infected area and as arrivals from infected parts became increasing I found it difficult to pay such attention to Plague duties as they really deserved. So I have appointed to the charge of the District Plague Office here Mr. Mohamed Jaffer who was sent to relieve Mr. — Nanjunda Naidu of the charge of the District Police. I had already communicated to you the necessity of appointing an Officer to the exclusive charge of Plague duties and

There was no such declaration recently — and you had been pleased to lent me the services of Mr. Knight for the purpose. I think it necessary that the Plague Establishment of the District should be maintained and the duties connected therewith should be looked after with care and efficiency till the close of the rainy season. As Mr. Mohamed Jaffer has, I believe, a good deal of experience in Plague Preventive duties and as Mr. Manjinda Naidu has done remarkably good service in the Police Department since he took charge of the same, I have placed Mr. Mohamed Jaffer in charge of Plague duties and directed Mr. Manjinda Naidu to continue in charge of the District Police in anticipation of Government approval.

I

I trust that the above arrangement will meet with your kind approval and request that you will be pleased to obtain Government sanction for the same.
